

VOL. IX. NO. 273. CHICAGO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1903. PRICE 5 CENTS

MATT BYRNES RETURNS.

Matt Byrnes, the American trainer, who left for Austria last January to handle the thoroughbreds of M. Eugene Boross, has returned home. He expressed himself as well pleased with his experience abroad, but has no intention at present of repeating the experiment, says Morning Telegraph of Thursday.

Byrnes found Austria a great country for racing. It has many really good thoroughbreds.

Byrnes also found that the people of Austria take very kindly to Americans and their racing methods. He says that the trainers and jockeys who go there succeed, and do better each ensuing year.

"But," he added, "a great drawback is the language. Not only is the Austrian tongue difficult of itself, but the country is made up of many provinces, in each of which the language and dialect is different."

Byrnes says he had great difficulty in learning the fine points in the conditions of the races. In addition, Byrnes says two of the three-year-old fillies he had, of which much was expected, went wrong and gave him much trouble. Even with these drawbacks he had quite a successful season.

M. Boross, who engaged Byrnes, is a Hungarian living on his estate at Stz. Lorenz, in the suburbs of Budapest. Mr. Boross married an American woman about a year ago, and while on a visit to this country became greatly interested in American methods in the training and handling of horses. Byrnes superintended the laying out and building of an American track, a mile in circumference, on the training ground of M. Boross.

The racetracks of Austria are sodded, although circular in course, except in races of six furlongs, which are generally run straightaway. Byrnes also turned a mammoth ox stable into an approved American barn, having twenty-four stalls for the thoroughbreds and all the latest appliances known in this country.

Byrnes returns hale and hearty. He has put on some flesh. He traveled all over the country, attending all the meetings in the Austrian empire. He says the people there bet well, but that the laying of wagers does not begin until horses go to the post. There is always a delay at the post of at least half an hour while betting is going on. He considers this a bad feature.

With Byrnes on the Kaiser Wilhelm came Charles Milburn, the jockey he took over with him. Milburn and Fred Cowman did all his riding in Austria, and achieved good results.

Fred Taral, who headed the list of winning jockeys, is due to arrive here on the Hamburg Line steamship today or tomorrow.

Of all the American jockeys riding in Austria Byrnes thought the record of Harry Lewis was most remarkable. He added, though, that Fred Taral never rode in better form in his life than last summer.

"But the way Lewis beat the starts, and practically won his races at the very beginning, was something remarkable," added the veteran trainer. "By sheer excellence and alertness he outshone the other boys in getting away from the post."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A deal is reported to be under way which, if consummated, will result in the control of Baltimore's historic race track, Pimlico, passing to a New York syndicate. The syndicate is in favor with the Jockey Club, and the success of the present plans will mean that Baltimore will again return to the racing circuit, with two-week running meetings each fall and spring. For some years there have been periodical rumors that the track would pass out of Baltimore control, but at no previous time had matters progressed so far and so favorably to that end. It looks now as though the New Yorkers will get the track, and that they will obtain possession within the next two weeks. The local men who have been identified with the track for some years past are supposed to be opposed to any change in existing conditions. Some who have been asked about the pending deal admit that it is pending and likely to be consummated.

Jule Garson has decided to take his good filly, Silver Dream, to New Orleans this winter, and she will perform in many of the late two-year-old and early three-year-old fixtures. She is a very shifty miss just now, and several horsemen are of the opinion that she has more than one of the fixtures there at her mercy. She ran her five and a half furlongs at Jamaica Tuesday in 1:06 1/2, the track record, with 107 pounds on her back, and on that performance alone she will be remembered.

Trainer "Bill" Smith is giving Eugenia Burch a careful "prep" for her stake engagements at Washington, and he promises to send her to the post better than she has been at any time this season. Wednesday morning, at Gravesend, she was sent along for a mile and three furlongs in 2:34. She was ridden by an exercise boy of goodly size and was well in hand all the journey. The filly takes kindly to a route and Smith promises that when she is uncovered in her four-year-old form she will be ready to pack weight and race all day.

"P. J. Miles has changed his plans regarding his California racing campaign and sent his horses from here to Little Rock, whence they will be shipped to Hot Springs about December 1," says the St. Louis Republic of Thursday. "In his lot is the fast Esher filly, Excentral, who cost him $3,500, and showed so well at the Fair Grounds over a route. Excentral has been entered in the Hot Springs Derby and other events. Cogswell has also been engaged in the longer events. Doctor Parish's horses and those of N. B. Tichenor and T. R. Madden have also been shipped to Little Rock, thence to Hot Springs. Several carloads more will leave the Fair Grounds for the same points in a few days. An acquisition to the Hot Springs contingent is Edward Ryan of St. Louis. Mr. Ryan owns some asphalt mines sixty miles south of Hot Springs, and will have some good horses at the winter race meeting. Among his lot is Joe Frey, Icon and several finely bred yearlings by Troubadour and other sires. He has a jockey, J. Morris, under contract. Entries received to the Hot Springs stakes that close on Saturday have now passed the 600 mark, and at the present rate will exceed all expectations."

Leopold de Rothschild heads the list of winning owners in England by a small margin, but his stallion, St. Frusquin, who ran second to Persimmon in the Derby and St. Leger and beat him in the Two Thousand Guineas, heads the list of winning sires by so large a margin that it will be impossible for any other stud horse to overtake him at Winner—B. g. by Pirate of Penzance—The Dreamer (trained by A. Rutledge).

Went to post at 2:07. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Sailor's Dream made up much ground and had to go all around his field to get up, but drew away and won in a canter. Melbourne Eclipse began slowly, was crowded back at the first turn, but closed a big gap and outgamed Choice and Honeybrook when the pinch came. Choice ran well, but tired in the last furlong. Honeybrook came wide at the turn into the homestretch, but finished fast. King's Pet was lame and the winner pulled up lame. Charlie Grainger showed early speed.
Scratched—42610 Radford, 99.
Corrected weights—King's Pet, 101.
Overweights—Sailor's Dream, 1 1/2 pounds; My Queen, 4.

Winner—B. f. by Hastings—Afterglow (trained by T. Settle).
Went to post at 2:34. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Anna Hastings quickly ran into the lead, showed the most speed thereafter and was never in trouble. Sjambok and Athena fought it out closely in the last sixteenth, the former just lasting long enough. Athena ran a good race and finished gamely. Lyryst closed a big gap and finished fast. Eleata tired in the stretch run.
Scratched—42660 Nettie E., 103; (42719) Katie Powers, 103; 42648 Miss Fleischmann, 103.

were two more good ones that I put over Thursday. Wednesday my two good ones were LADY AMELIA, 3-1, won, and ORTHODOX, 8-5, won. TUESDAY I put over those ripe "pippins," MONET, 5-1, won, and COLONSAY, 6-1, second. Monday I cut loose those two good ones, SWEET ALICE, 6-1, won, and RACE KING, 7-5, won, and Saturday I opened the Jamaica meeting with those juicy ones, MEDAL, 12-1, won, and GAY BOY, 4-1, won. Here is another proof that I am capable of imparting the best and finest information. Of course, it is my position that enables me to secure these remarkably good ones, and so you should be with me right along. My record at AQUEDUCT demonstrates beyond a doubt that my two-horse wire is a winner.

If you are unable to personally take advantage of my two-horse wire I would advise you to forward me an account of $25, $50, or $100, which I will have placed at the track for you in $5, $10, or $20, straight bets; when playing for you I charge nothing for the information, but deduct 20 per cent of the net winnings as my commission. Information mailed to you each a. m. Itemized statement with winnings forwarded at the end of each week's play.

Saturday and then Bennings.

For Saturday, to close the meeting, I have one that should be about 30-1. Having been specially prepared, this one looks to me to be already in. Don't fail to get this. Monday Bennings will open, and good things will be pulled off here in rapid succession. For Monday, to open the meeting, a couple of good ones at about 10-1 or 12-1 each. Tuesday another at about 8-1 and one about 3-1, and Wednesday one at about 15-1. Don't hesitate, but subscribe at once. My address during Bennings will remain the same. Mail orders wired at 7 a. m. Terms $2 daily, $5 for 3 days, $10 for 6 days. SPECIAL TERMS FOR ENTIRE BENNING MEETING, $15. Address

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:17 1/2.
 Winner—Br. c. by Faverdale—Sweet Bye and Bye (trained by J. Rodegap).
 Went to post at 3:59. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving.
 Major T. J. Carson was well away, showed a good order of speed and was never in trouble.
 Variora began slowly, but finished fast next to the inner rail. Idle showed speed, but tired in the last few yards. Ethel Scruggs ran fairly well. Rough and Tumble had a rough trip.
 Banwell had to go all around his field and finished fast. Choice showed early speed, but tired.
 Overweights—False Entry, 2 pounds.

 Winner—Ch. m. by St. Saviour—Distaff (trained by E. W. Moore).
 Went to post at 4:22. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving.
 Arachne was crowded back on the first turn and had to go all around the leaders to get up, but finished fast and drew away in the last furlong. Trocadero ran well throughout, but swerved towards the inside fence in the last twenty yards and was used too much in racing with Worthington in the last half. Jigger closed a big gap and finished with a rush.
 Worthington showed speed, but was probably short. Mosketo was eased up when beaten.
 Scratched—42680 Mandamus, 101; 42649 Bean, 101; 42668 Bob Franklin, 100; 42685 Fleaneur, 99.

 Winner—Ch. f. by St. George—Ethel Thomas (trained by E. L. Graves).
 Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Mamie Worth outclassed her company, showed the most speed throughout and won as her rider pleased. Princess Tulane was in light and ran a good race, moved up on the stretch turn, but had no chance to beat the winner and Redfern took things easy in the stretch run. The Captain, a good maiden, was outrun in the first part of the race, but made up ground and finished fast under the whip. Parisienne was probably short, came fast at the stretch bend, but tired when straightened out. Forward ran poorly. Athlana was used up in the early racing.
 Scratched—(42711)Buttons, 122; 42686 Girdle, 113; 42639 Akela, 97.

Time, 13 1/2, 25 1/2, 51, 1:15 1/2, 1:42 1/2, 1:55 1/2.
 Winner—Br. h. by Pirate of Penzance—Right Wild (trained by G. Frasch).
 Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Wild Pirate showed plenty of speed today, raced All Gold into submission, drew away on the stretch turn and had plenty in hand at the end. Hoodwink showed improvement. In a good position to the last quarter, she finished gamely under a drive. All Gold tired from early racing and barely lasted long enough to secure third place. Stonewall was under pressure all of the last half, but he could not get up. Satire ran closer up than usual all the way, but there was too much speed in the race for him.
 Overweights—Satire, 1 pound.
 Wild Pirate, show, 1 to 4. Hoodwink, show, 7 to 10. All Gold, show, evens.

 Winner—B. c. by Fresno—Secretive (trained by V. Holler).
 Went to post at 2:55. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving.
 Reticent has been steadily improving and ran a good race, moved up when turning into the stretch and readily went to the front under a hand ride, but was all out and doing his best at the end. Pol Roger is speedy, but he does not seem to be able to stay, forced the fast pace from which he tired badly. Reliance was pinched out on the backstretch, but came around the field on the turn and, finishing fast, would have been second in a few more strides. Crown Prince displayed his usual speed, but tired under the weight and swerved in the final drive when cut with the whip. Sais tired after going a half mile.
 Scratched—42698 Mimosa, 118; 42714 Prince Salm Salm, 106.

 Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily.
 Sheriff Bell ran a good, game race and was capably handled throughout, raced Monograph into submission and had enough left to stall off Carbuncle in the final furlong. The latter was the best horse and should have won, but Fuller outrode Redfern in the final drive.
 Ethics came around the field on the stretch turn, was under a drive in the stretch run.
 was slowly gaining and his race was a good one. Lady Potentate had no mishaps, ran in a good position all the way and tired in the final quarter. Monograph will win when rightly placed, showed a good burst of speed, but a mile is as far as he cares to go.

Time, 11 1/2, 23 1/2, 48, 1:01 1/2, 1:08.
 Winner—Br. f. by Prince of Monaco—Sue II. (trained by A. Carter).
 Went to post at 3:50. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving.
 Clear the Arena showed a fine burst of speed and was easily the best and quickly went to the front when Higgins called on her. Belle of Belle Meade ran well and hung on gamely in the final drive. Gananogue finished fast and would have been second had he got clear in time. Gay Lizzette closed a big gap after having begun slowly. Ancestor ran a good race.
 Belle of Portland lacked her usual speed. Merry Moments was plainly short and will improve on this race.
 Scratched—42627 High Heels, 112.
 Clear the Arena, show, 1 to 2. Belle of Belle Meade, show, 8 to 5. Gananogue, show, 5 to 1.

42727 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Fillies, Mares and Geldings. Selling.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

this late day. Mr. Rothschild is one of the most amiable gentlemen in all England and a confirmed invalid. His health is so poor that he does not see the horses run in one race out of ten, yet he bears all his ailments with fortitude and never once utters a word of complaint.

Says a recent Los Angeles newspaper: "Big Bill" Knapp, the midget jockey at Agricultural Park, covered himself all over with glory on Thursday last by bringing in two good winners, Fox Lake and Erne, they being his only two mounts that day. He is the lightest weight at the track, but he rides with the courage of a Fortham or an Archer."

Walter B. Jennings, who took his horses to California more than a month ago, has made arrangements for "Jack" Martin to ride for him during the winter months on the Pacific Slope. Martin will start at once for San Francisco. Since the accident that incapacitated him in the middle of the eastern season, Martin has been far below the form he showed earlier in the year, and Jennings believes he will do better with a change of scene.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Walter Robbins is reported to have signed a contract to do the lightweight riding for Capt. S. S. Brown's New Orleans stable. It was the intention of the elder Robbins to ship from Latonia to Los Angeles. He will now send his stable to the Crescent City track.

Secretary Sheridan Clark reports that from 350 to 375 horses that have been raced over eastern tracks this year will be sent to New Orleans for the coming winter campaign.

George Odom has asked the stewards of the Jockey Club to order the payment of his claim for twenty-one days' services for "Alex." Shields at the rate of $1,000 per month. The matter was referred to F. R. Hitchcock and the Assistant Secretary for further investigation.

Gunfire's win at Jamaica last Wednesday put W. C. Whitney in advance of J. B. Haggin in the list of winning owners of 1903, and he will probably prove the head of the list when the season's record is made up.

Winkfield has promised to ride Dr. J. G. Lyman's horses during the Bennings meeting. After the races at Washington he will stay at his home in Cincinnati until time to sail for Russia with J. O. Keene. Winkfield is now twenty-three years old. He weighs, with his overcoat, 123 pounds, but claims he can ride as low as 107.
